Development Authority has reported that on receipt of report about completion of civil work and provision of basic amenities, a computerized draw is held. Thereafter, Demand-cum-Allotment letters are sent to the successful registrants requiring them to deposit the demanded amount and the requisite documents. The possession of flats is handed over after the receipt of demanded amount and the requisite documents with in the stipulated period.

However, in some cases, the offers of allotment had to be cancelled as the allottees either did not make the payment in time or did not fulfil the terms and conditions of allotment or did not accept the allotment. All such cancelled/surrendered flats are re-allotted to the wait-listed registrants through computerized draw.
